AUGUST, 2009

WELCOME

We've got another jam-packed newsletter for you this month and it's filled with news and gossip from along Lifestyle Boulevard, as we call the wing of our building that houses the editorial teams of all our gardening and lifestyle magazines. We've got a couple of great giveaways this month too, so be sure to enter for your chance to win.

NEW PRODUCT ALERT

Just landed on our desk is a pack of gorgeous little products from Cobwebs that make fabulous and fun gifts for girlfriends. Julie Tancred, Managing Director of Cobwebs, says they're all about injecting a little glamour and fun into the world, and we couldn't stop giggling as we read the 'fab-girl' sayings aloud. My favourite is the tea towel with a 1940s glamourpuss stating "I understand the concept of cooking and cleaning. Just not as it applies to me." And how about the luggage tag with the motto "What happens in Paris, stays in Paris" – mmm, something to think about.

Check out their website www.cobwebs.com.au for a whole lot more.
